

3B— OPEN ACCESS AND NON-TRADITIONAL FORMS OF DIGITAL SCHOLARLY PUBLICATION (PANEL)

Presented in collaboration with the Canadian Society for Digital Humanities.

Panelists: Joanne Paterson (Western University Libraries), Amy Buckland (University of Guelph), Lisa Quinn (Wilfrid Laurier University), Peter Midgley (University of Alberta Press), Michael Sinatra (Université de Montréal), Ann Ludbrook (Ryerson University)

This interdisciplinary session aims to bring librarians and academic publishers into dialogue with scholars about the role librarians and publishers can and should play in the full life-cycle of digital scholarship, starting from research ideation and design. Each panelist will present a brief (5 min) presentation on their thoughts regarding OA in the humanities. These talks will be followed by questions from the chair and then opening up the discussion to the audience.
